Aydrionna Rose Armitage, daughter of Tylor Armitage and Abigail McIntosh, had been baptized according to the Rite of the Roman Catholic Church last Saturday, July 11th at St. Anthony's Parish by Fr. Pier Pandolfo. Present were the relatives and families of Tyron and Abigail. Welcome to the Catholic Community Aydrionna Rose. Let us pray for her and her family.

Ministries for Summer

Assigned Ministers please inform the office if you would not be able to act on the ministries assigned to you for the month of July that we may be able to make other arrangements with other ministers as early as possible. Or if you will, you can make arrangements with other ministers by exchanging schedules for whatever ministry and schedule you might have been assigned. Thank you!

We pray for the Sick:

Denise, Helen & Harry, Eric Sr., Vi, Arsenia, Reginald, Kelda, Georgina, Shaylyn and Max

THE PROPHET: The Call and Sending. "I am no prophet.. but the Lord said to me, Go, prophecy to my people." The prophet reveals that they come from unassuming origins and have no claim to be prophets except that the call came from God and they were sent with particular messages and actions. To be prepared we either are being called to be a prophet, hence we need to listen. Or we are being called to receive the message of the prophet, hence we need to listen. Homework: let us practice listening.

Rose Prince Pilgrimage, July 3,4,5 at Lejac: the pilgrimage was a wonderful success; let us pray for the many graces to grow to fruition.

CAMP MORICE, Diocesan Camp at Ft. St. James: wonderful programs for children and for families to grow in their faith in the beautiful camp setting. See bulletin board for programs. In particular, each parish in the Diocese has been challenged to send youth to the IGNITE weekend. The group FaceToFace Ministries which runs IGNITE was at the Diocesan Youth Conference in May 2014.

ARTICLE 2 II. THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN TRADITION AND SACRED SCRIPTURE The Magisterium of the Church

85 "The task of giving an authentic interpretation of the Word of God, whether in its written form or in the form of Tradition, has been entrusted to the living teaching office of the Church alone. Its authority in this matter is exercised in the name of Jesus Christ." This means that the task of interpretation has been entrusted to the bishops in communion with the successor of Peter, the Bishop of Rome.

86 "Yet this Magisterium is not superior to the Word of God, but is its servant. It teaches only what has been handed on to it. At the divine command and with the help of the Holy Spirit, it listens to this devotedly, guards it with dedication and expounds it faithfully. All that it proposes for belief as being divinely revealed is drawn from this single deposit of faith."

87 Mindful of Christ's words to his apostles: "He who hears you, hears me", the faithful receive with docility the teachings and directives that their pastors give them in different forms.

The dogmas of the faith

88 The Church's Magisterium exercises the authority it holds from Christ to the fullest extent when it defines dogmas, that is, when it proposes, in a form obliging the Christian people to an irrevocable adherence of faith, truths contained in divine Revelation or also when it proposes, in a definitive way, truths having a necessary connection with these.

89 There is an organic connection between our spiritual life and the dogmas. Dogmas are lights along the path of faith; they illuminate it and make it secure. Conversely, if our life is upright, our intellect and heart will be open to welcome the light shed by the dogmas of faith.

90 The mutual connections between dogmas, and their coherence, can be found in the whole of the Revelation of the mystery of Christ. "In Catholic doctrine there exists an order or hierarchy of truths, since they vary in their relation to the foundation of the Christian faith."
