Camp Morice (Bringing God to consciousness)

My name is Nicole Hak. I have spent two wonderful weeks at CAMP MORICE, at TEEN Week I was a camper, and at TWEEN Week I was a Counselor to a cabin of 7 girls together with 2 other Counselors. Our days are spent bonding together, playing games, learning more about God and Jesus. A personal favorite of mine is having fun with my new friends, getting to know the campers and staff on a more personal level, running around at the games of MI and Predator and Prey and getting to know God better through our mass and daily prayer times. I look forward to returning each year, and I encourage you to consider this wonderful experience.

From Saints to us...

"Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." -St. Jerome

Esther, Frank, Lucia, Zenny, Ricardo and Shelley

We pray for the Sick:

The Art of Feeding: At Christmas we look on the image of Jesus in the manger, a food trough for the barn animals. In the Sixteen Chapel painting by Michelangelo on the Last Judgement, we examine how we have feed the hungry or given drink to the thirsty or clothed the naked. I have a spiritual reflection on Jesus feeding the 5000 which asks if we have feed the lonely with our presence, or feed the noisy world with silence, or feed our drive for pleasure with gentle abstinence? We need to be fed and to feed others. The question is 'what are we using as food?' Homework: in prayer let us ask God to be aware of the people needing to be fed, and to feed them with food fit for heaven.

CAMP MORICE, Diocesan Camp at Ft. St. James: wonderful programs for children and for families to grow in their faith in the beautiful camp setting. See bulletin board for programs. In particular, each parish in the Diocese has been challenged to send youth to the IGNITE weekend. The group FaceToFace Ministries which runs IGNITE was at the Diocesan Youth Conference in May 2014.

II. THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN TRADITION AND SACRED SCRIPTURE

IN BRIEF

96 What Christ entrusted to the apostles, they in turn handed on by their preaching and writing, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, to all generations, until Christ returns in glory.

97 "Sacred Tradition and Sacred Scripture make up a single sacred deposit of the Word of God" (DV 10) in which, as in a mirror, the pilgrim Church contemplates God, the source of all her riches.

98 "The Church, in her doctrine, life and worship, perpetuates and transmits to every generation all that she herself is, all that she believes" (DV 8 § 1).
99 Thanks to its supernatural sense of faith, the People of God as a whole never ceases to welcome, to penetrate more deeply and to live more fully from the gift of divine Revelation.

100 The task of interpreting the Word of God authentically has been entrusted solely to the Magisterium of the Church, that is, to the Pope and to the bishops in communion with him.

ARTICLE 3

SACRED SCRIPTURE

Christ - The unique Word of Sacred Scripture

101 In order to reveal himself to men, in the condescension of his goodness God speaks to them in human words: "Indeed the words of God, expressed in the words of men, are in every way like human language, just as the Word of the eternal Father, when he took on himself the flesh of human weakness, became like men."

102 Through all the words of Sacred Scripture, God speaks only one single Word, his one Utterance in whom he expresses himself completely:

You recall that one and the same Word of God extends throughout Scripture, that it is one and the same Utterance that resounds in the mouths of all the sacred writers, since he who was in the beginning God with God has no need of separate syllables; for he is not subject to time.

103 For this reason, the Church has always venerated the Scriptures as she venerates the Lord's Body. She never ceases to present to the faithful the bread of life, taken from the one table of God's Word and Christ's Body.

104 In Sacred Scripture, the Church constantly finds her nourishment and her strength, for she welcomes it not as a human word, "but as what it really is, the word of God". "In the sacred books, the Father who is in heaven comes lovingly to meet his children, and talks with them."

Catholic Women's League

The Catholic Women's League is the largest national organization of Catholic women in Canada. It is an organization that has been going strong in most parishes across Canada since 1920 and here at St. Joseph's since the 1980's. The Catholic Women's League is all about family. We actively fight for the rights of women and families at all levels of government, passing resolutions and working hard to understand and then act on complex political and social issues that affect all Canadians. As well, through fundraising activities, we support many groups that embody gospel values.
