PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

What is, is, and though we might rather not believe it, vaping and other concerning behaviours have been and will be participated in by St. Joseph's students. I cannot provide any "ultimate" advice except that parents need to be attentive, "home", and know that many of the undesirable activities will be presented to or participated in by your child through his or her friends or through observation of peers or even family members. What peers do matter, but what important-in-their-lives adults do matters even more. What parents and educators say also matters. Need resources: The White Hatter has incredible materials for internet safety education; the WITS Program has online resources for anti-bullying, and resources like AnxietyBC can help families who have a child suffering from anxiety. Many more resources are out there. Trying matters.

Sincerely, Rosemary McKenzie

Reflection for Pentecost Sunday

The early Christian community knew that Jesus and the life-giving Spirit were with them. That conviction sustained and empowered them to deal with unimaginable challenges. We are given the same presence, peace and forgiveness when we come together, and we are called today to pass that on to others. What signs of this presence do we experience? How do we express it to others?
