PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

What are you most thankful for about yourself? God made each of us unique. God loves each one of us.

- Rosemary McKenzie

THANKSGIVING CELEBRATION AND MEAL-
OCTOBER 11TH

Gr. 3 Class led our Thanksgiving Mass on Friday Oct 11 then followed a delicious turkey lunch prepared by many volunteers coordinated by Christine Kilb. Thank you to all who helped make is a success.

CROSS COUNTRY RUN

The Cross Country Run will be held on Thursday, October 17th. This is a district event which our school organizes for all the schools in the area. We will need many parent volunteers to help with marshaling, handing out water, first aid, and score keeping. Please consider signing up for one of the volunteer positions. Also, please send your child with a full water bottle as they get very thirsty running the race.

IT'S FIRE SAFETY WEEK

Do you know the most common cause of kitchen fires is a pot left unattended? Candles are another cause of house fires. Expect your child to ask you about your smoke alarms and family escape route.

PRE-KINDERGARTEN

Two spaces are available in our Pre-K Program. The program has play and school readiness activities on Tuesday and Thursday mornings. Please call the school office for more information.

Catholic Women's League
Smithers

Please consider making a difference for women by donating 1% of your personal spending to Development & Peace. Examples of person spending are clothing, entertainment, holidays, etc. Bring donations to the next CWL meeting or place an envelope marked D&P in the collection by Oct. 13th.

Christmas Bazaar Saturday Nov. 16th. Volunteers are needed! Clean, usable items (nothing large and no clothes) are needed for the Gently Used table; baked goods, jam, pickles, crafts, etc. to sell.

Go to www.cwl.ca for interesting news and articles.
